policy. Mr. Depew finally asked the ques-What's the matter with Harrison?" The audience, as one voice responded:

"He's all right." After making a tour of the State he predicted that "Harrison would come to the Harlem river with 100,000 majority." The meeting closed amid great enthusiasm, and with three cheers for Harrison and Reid.

CARDINAL GIBBONS'S ADVICE.

Catholics Urged to Vote for Men Who Are Conspicuous for Integrity of Character. BALTIMORE, Nov. 7 .- Cardinal Gibbons preached the sermon at the Cathedral yesterday. It was founded on the gospel of the day, containing the important declaration of Christ, "Render unto Casar things that are Cæsar's and to God the things that are God's." During his sermon he spoke as follows concerning the coming election:

We should not, indeed, be blind to our faults as a Nation; we cannot close our eyes to our shortcomings. We are not unmindful of the chances of political corruption and of the repre-hensible methods employed in some of our elections. But, notwithstanding these dark shadows, the picture presented by our country is a bright and beautiful one. We have an election on Tuesday which is to determine who is to be the chief ruler of the Nation for the next four years Both parties are straining their utmost efforts that their respective candidates may be successful. We have reason to thank God that ours is a peaceful revolution, a revolution not carried on with the sword, but with the tongue and pen.

Few among you aspire to political office or preferment. But you should take an active position loyal in the welfare of the commonwealth. Remember that as a citizen of this great Republic you are sovereigns, or have a share in the sovereignty of the country. Show your zeal for our country by exercising your best judgment by voting for the man of your choice. Give your suffrages to men of clean hands and hearts, who are above the taint of corruption, and who are conspicuous for integrity of character. Above all, you will aid your country by the blamelessness of your private lives. Political life is the reflex of private life. The stream does not rise above its source. Political life is to be gauged by the standard of domestic life. What would it profit you to be esteemed in public as a free and honorable citizen of the United States, if, in the sanctuary of your home, you were a slave of anger, lust or intemperance. May our God save our country from the moral decay and corrup-tion which befell the Roman empire and brought its ruin. May He bless the Nation. May He preserve our political institutions and perpetuate our country for ages to come.

OVATION TO HENRY.

Republicans of Anderson Turn Out En Masse to Hear Their Candidate for Congress.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 7.—The campaign closed here to-night by a monster meeting in the opera-house, at which Hon. Charles L. Henry was given a perfect ovation. His appearance on the stage was the signal for unbounded enthusiasm, which was manifested in wildest applause time and again during his speech. The vile circular which has just been put out by the triends of Bynum was reviewed in a manner that could hardly help making Mr. Henry many votes. His speech was manly, earnest, frank and very convincing. At no time in all his canvass has he appeared to as good advantage as when he addressed his fellow-townsmen and neighbors to-night. Republican headquarters were thronged all day and the best feeling exists throughout the county on the final result. Mayor John H. Terhone, chairman of the county central committee, claims the county by 200 majority for the entire ticket. The betting to-night on the result was about even.

The Republicans unearthed a Democratic scheme to-day to bribe voters in Greene township, in which the Democratic inspector and judge are implicated. Their names were reported and arrests will be made to-morrow on the first attempt to carry out the plans. The secretary of the Democratic committee, George Beebe, in a conversation with the Journal correspondent, to-night, claimed the county by a small majority on State and national tickets, but admitted that the county ticket was in great peril. The Republicans are ready for the fight tomorrow, and will keep it up all along the line until the last ballot be cast.

LONDON, May 7 .- A dispatch to the Times from Paris says: "Mrs. Deacon will be punished unless she surrenders the child she abducted, but as she has hitherto altogether failed to excite sympathy here this move, if she intended by it to get herself imprisoned, may not have been unwise from her point of view."

most part, feel assured that they will elect their Governor in this State, and there are many who even expect the electoral vote of Illinois to be cast for Cleveland. The Republicans laugh at these predictions. and their State committee appears to be confident of Republican victory all along the line in Illinois. The Democratic national campaign committee, whose Western headquarters have been in charge of Congressman Cable, sent out telegrams to all local committees in the Northwest, to-day, assuring them that a careful pell left no room for doubt of Cleveland's success in Illinois and Wisconsin, and that all that remained was to get out the full Democratic vote to-morrow. This committee has practically managed the entire Democratic campaign in the doubtful States of the Northwest. Mr. Cable says: "From a careful examination of the polls received from this State, I believe the two parties will come to Cook county very nearly even, and that the majority here will be over 10,000, which will give the State to Cleveland and Altgeld by a bandsome majority." Mr. Cable claims that the Weaver electors will win in South Dakota; that Wisconsin will give 13,000 Democratic plurality outside of Milwaukee, and that lows is doubtful, with the chances in favor of Democracy. To a representative of the Associated Press Hon. W. J. Campbell, the Illinois member of the national Republican committee, said: "I believe that Illinois will give a majority for the Harrison electors larger that four years ago, and that despite the bitter fight waged against him Governor Fifer will be triumphantly elected, Regarding Wisconsin, my latest information is of so assuring a character that feel sanguine of a majority for Harrison, and the election of Spooner as Governor by a plurality of several thousand. I do not regard lows as any more in doubt than Pennsylvania, I have little information outside of newspaper reports regarding other Western and Northwestern States, but know that members of the national committee feel the situation has steadily improved for a fortnight past, and that the Republican leaders are sanguine of success every where except in Nevada. The loss of a portion of the electoral ticket in Minnesota is possible, but by no means probable. My advices lead me to believe that in Indiana, while the vote may be close, the chances are decidedly favorable to the Republic-

The Illinois Democratic State central committee says: "No one places the Democratic majority in this State at less than 5,000, while many shrewd politicians place Altgeld, for Governor, 20,000. We may lose one member of Congress, but this will be offset by the gain of two members at large. The Republican State central committee gave out the following statement: "It is the opinion of the State central committee that Illinois will give an increased Republican majority. Much, however, depends on the result in Cook county. There is no question that the State outside will give President Harrison a larger majority than four years ago, and Governor Fifer will be little if any behind the President. The German defection, about which so much has been said, has been grossly exaggerated, and there are large gains from conserv-Democratic sources. We exto elect thirteen Congressmen beyond a doubt, and have great hopes of defeating Fithian in the Sixteenth and Forman in the Eighteenth, in addition. In the Second, Fourth, Sixth, Twenty-fourth, Thirty-second and Fortyfourth senatorial districts, which have been claimed as doubtful by the Democrats, there is no question of the election of Republican candidates, and we firmly believe that we will elect Mr. Bassett in the Twenty-sixth, Mr. Fecke in the Fortysecond and Mr. Boston in the Forty-eighth. There is little doubt that we will have control of both branches of the Legislature. All Senators elected at this election will participate in the election of a United States Senator two years hence."

SENATOR SPOONER CONFIDENT.

Wisconsin Will Elect Both the Republican National and State Tickets. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 7 .- Senstor Spooner said to-day that the prospects of Republican success in Wisconsin never seemed better than now, that he had been in almost every section of the State and that the Republicans were harmonious, united everywhere, except possibly in one or two counties, and that "our friends, the enemy," have a good many interpecine quarrels on their hands. He said: "I believe a large majority of the voters of Wisconsin are for the maintenance of the protective system and against a return to the unstable wild-cat currency system of other days and for the administration and methods of President Harrison." Both Chairman Wall, of the Democratic, and Chairman Thompson, of the Republican State committee, believe success is certain for their parties in this State. Mr. Wall says: "It is my judgment that the State of Wisconsin will go Democratic tomorrow by at least 18,000; that there will not be any great difference between the vote of Mr. Cleveland and Governor Peck. The Legislature will be Democratic in both branches, the Senate by a large majority: that is, if every Democrat does his full Chairman Thompson says: "I am not giving any figures, but I have confidence in a magnificent Republican victory for the national and State tickets. The Legislature is fighting ground, in spite of the disadvantage of an unfair apportionment. The Republicans will elect not less than seven out of ten Congressmen. If the election was to-day John L. Mitchell's defeat would be certain. I make these statements upon assurances received from many quarters of the State. Wisconsin is solidly Republican upon the tariff. On the currency issue the Democrats will lose votes. I have reason believe that Senator Spooner's vote will be fully up to that cast for the Republican electors. He will receive a large number of Democratic votes from people who admire him as a statesman with brains, inestimably above George Peck in that respect. He has made a vigorous and effective campaign. We do not expect to get all the Lutheran vote back. We have reasonable faith that a percentage of it, a good majority, will come back to us now that there are questions of business prosperity at issue and local questions have been eliminated. The stay-at-home voters will come out, and the Republican vote will be at least fully up to that of 1888.

Milwaukee city registration shows an increase of 10,000 over that year. Other beaviest increases will come from Donglas, Ashland and Bayfield countres. In 1888 Hoard, Republican. was elected Governor by a plurality of 2.027 and in 1890 Peck. Democrat, was elected by a pinrality of 28,320, the Lutheran school question figuring prominently in that contest and the results showing that about 45,000 Republicans in the State did not vote at all. With favorable weather there will be a large vote cast to-morrow.

DOUBTFUL CONNECTICUT.

Both Republicans and Democrats Claim the

State by Pluralities, NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7 .- The chairmen of both the Republican and Democratic State committees were interviewed by the Associated Press as to the outcome of the election in this State to-morrow. Mr. Herbert E. Benten, chairman of the Republican committee, said he expected his party would secure a safe plurality for both the electoral and State tickets. He looked for the election of a Legislature which would be Republican in both branches. Three out of four of the Republican candidates for Congress would be elected. and he should not at all be surprised if his party made a clean sweep, insuring a full depublican representation in both houses of Congress at Washington. Chairman Clinton B. Davis, of the Democratic State committee, said that he was absolutely certain that the Democratic electoral ticket in this State would have a plorality of not less than two thousand. Judge Morris, he said, would poll more votes for Governor than General Merwin. as he did two years ago, but not a sufficient number to maure an election by the people, and that the election of Governor would, therefore, be thrown into the Legislature, The Legislature, he said, was in doubt as to its political complexion on a joint ballot, and no one could foretell the result. The State Senate, he was certain would be Democratic by a good working majority. The Democrats were sure of three Congressmen out of four.

Republicans Defrauded in Missouri. Sr. Louis, Nov. 7 .- When the Board of Revision ceased its work upon the St. Louis registration list a week ago it was some tifteen thousand names shorter than it was when they began. A lively scramble to force some of these names back resulted in mandamus proceedings against the recorder of voters. The proceedings were instituted by the Republicans, who got up a petition bearing some fifteen hundred names. When court adjourned to-night but seventy-five were restored and so the registration of this city now stands but little changed.

Chairman Bothwell, of the Republican State central committee, when seen to-day, was averse to making any attempt to give figures, but he said he felt confident of the material production of the usual Democratic pluralities on the State ticket. 'As to Congressmen he considered one district. the Tenth, safe and felt that four others were doubtful. Chairman Salmon, of the Democratic executive committee, was confident but would give no figures either. He said, however, that Missouri would give one of her old-time Democratic majorities, also electing fourteen Democratic Congressmen, with a fair chance for the fifteenth.

Democratic Hopes Centered on Oregon. PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7 .- In accordance with the instructions from the Democratic national committee, the chairman of the Democratic State committee to-day issued the following circular to the Democrats of Important orders have been received from Chairman Harrity. The election of Cleveland depends on Oregon going for Weaver. A Democratic vote for Cleveland electors in this State is a vote for Harrison. If you are a Democrat and want Cleveland elected, vote for Weaver.

Special trains were dispatched early this morning to distribute circulars all over the State. Chairman Murphy, of the Demo-cratic committee, said this afternoon: "The Democratic and People's party have a com-bined majority of 12,000 to 15,000 over the Republicans, and there is no possibility of one losing enough votes to defeat the ticket. The Weaver managers estimate the Republican vote in that State at 33,000; Demo-cratic, 27,000; People's party, 25,000. They assert if the Weaver electors receive 10,000 Democratic votes their election is assured. The chairman of the Republican State committee expresses confidence of epublican success in the State by 10,000

Michigan Will Give Republican Gains. DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7 .- Both Republicans and Democrats claim that Michigan will be carried by their respective parties. Daniel J. Campau, chairman of the Democratic State central committee, says that his party will elect their State ticket by a good majority and more than half of the presidential electors and Congressmen. He also hopes to have a majority in the next Legislature. No figures are given, however, to substantiate these claims. Senator McMillan, chairman of the Republican State central committee, predicts a victory for his party in this State. He declares that the State ticket will be elected by a plurality of from 14,000 to 18,000. A majority will be had in the pext Legislature, thus making the United States senatorship safe for the Republicans. Chairman Mc-Millan says that large gains will be made in the number of Congressmen elected the last time, and eight of the Republican electors, he thinks, are safe.

Both Sides Confident in Kansas. TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7 .- Fusion with the Populists and Democrats in Kansas has now been accomplished in all the congressional districts excepting the Sixth. The chances seem to favor success for the fusionsts in the First, Second, Third, Fifth and Seventh, while the Republicans seem to have a sure thing in the Fourth and Chairman Simpson, of the Republican State central committee, claims everything. He says the Republicans will, without doubt, have a majority of from 10,000 to 15,000 on the State and national tickers, and will elect every congressional candidate. He says Jerry Simpson's defeat is Chairman Breidenthal, of the Populist State committee, claims the election of Lewelling, candidate for Governor, by a majority of at least 12,000, and says that Weaver will run ahead of the State ticket by at leat 10,000 votes.

Allege 1 Threats of Populists. ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 7 .- The third party people in Thompson, the nome of Congressman "Tom" Watson, threaten to burn the town, to-morrow, and to annihilate the Democrats. The Mayor of the town, John L. Holzendorf, has appealed to Governor Northen for aid. The Governor has ordered the military companies here and in Augusta to be ready for marching within a half hour's notice. Orders have also been given to the railroads for special trains if necessary. Since Watson called his followers out last week to guard him, they have declared that they would leave the town in ashes if they ever came there again. Nearly all the wives of Democrats have left Thompson, and some of the families have moved away, as they feared for

How It Looks in North Dakota,

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 7.—After a careful canvass on the part of the Republican committee Chairman Spalding is willing to go on record with the prediction of the election of the Harrison electors by 2,000, Congressman by 1.500 and Governor and the entire State ticket by 1,000, with the possible exception of one railroad commissioner. On the other hand Chairman Marata, of the Democratic committee, claims the State for the fusionists by 2,000 to 3,000. The Legislature will be very close, and it is claimed by both sides. Republicans have been confident of a majority of fifteen all along until Saturday, when they weakened on discouraging reports. Conservative pliticians place North Dakota in doubt, with chances favoring the Weaver-

North Dakota All Right.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 7 .- The Republican State com mittee gives the following statement to the Associatiated Press: "The Harrison and Reid electors will be elected by from 2,000 to 3,000 plurality. Governor Bourke will win by a majority of 1,500 to 2,000, though there is a possibility that his vote may fall to 1,300. The rest of the State ticket will pull through with good majorities. Congressman Johnson has a walkaway. The Legislature will be Republican on joint ballot by at least four majority and it may run to fifteen." The Democratic State committee, which includes the People's fusion, having been accomplished, claim both the national and State tickets, the former by from 800 to 1,000 and the latter by from 2,000 to 3,000.

Colorado Witt Go Republican. DENVER, Col., Nov. 7 .- To-night closed the most bitter campaign in the history of Colorado, and to-morrow's balloting only can tell the result. Republican State leaders claim the State by 5,500 for Harrison. and 8,000 for the balance of the ticket. They claim both Congressmen, Coe, by 500, and Eddy by 1,800. Fusion Democrats say Weaver will have 6,000 to 7,000 majority. while Pence will be elected to Congress in the First district by 3,500, and Bell, in the Second district, by 4,000. Both sides also claim a majority in the Legislature. The Harrison electors will probably run behind the State ticket, though it is difficult to estimate how much. The People's party managers' estimates are even higher than those of the Democrats.

North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 7 .- The eve of election finds everything quiet in North Carolina. In an interview to-night Chairman Simmons, of the Democratic committee, claimed the State by 15,000 majority. He expected seven Congressmen out of nine, with hopes of all, and claimed the Legislature. Chairman Eaves declined to express himself, saying that to-morrow would tell its own tale. It is understood that the People's party claim that Weaver will poll 50,000 votes, and that they will elect Gattling in the First, Keonce in the Third not alluring, according to the local that the campaign would develop some and Stroug in the Fourth districts. They hope, in connection with the Republicans, to control the Legislature.

New Hampshire Not in Danger. CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 7 .- At Republican headquarters it is claimed that the State will give Harrison upwards of 2,500 plurality; that Smith will be elect-Governor by the people; that both Blair and Baker will be elected to Congress, and that the Republicans will both branches of the Legislature.

At Democratic headquarters the State is conceded to Harrison by a small plurality, and it is claimed there will be no choice for Governor by the people, that the Democrats will elect both members of Congress and that the Legislalature will be very close.

Nevada Will Likely Go for Weaver, SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7 .- An authoritative dispatch from Virginia City this evening, says it is impossible to venture a prediction as to the plurality, but Weaver will probably carry Nevada. Newlands, the third party cadidate for Congress will also probably get a majority slightly less than Weaver's. Stewart has an even chance of losing four counties in his senatorial contest -Storie, Washoe, Ormsby, Douglass. In each case he will be beaten by the opposition hold-over Republican Senators.

The Peck Case. ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 7 .- This was the day set for a decision in the Court of Sessions on the demurrer to the indictment of Labor Commissioner Peck and his stenographer, Elbert Rogers, on the charge of burning certain tariff circulars and answers. Just before the court adjourned Judge Clute told District Attorney Eston that he had reached a decision, but had not had time to consult with his associates about the matter. He announced that he would hand down a decision probably Monday next.

How Cleveland Will Learn His Fate, NEW YORK, Nov. 7 .- Mr. Cleveland on election day will vote early and will probably spend most of the day at his office. As is his custom he will remain at home on election night. A telegraph has been run into his study and with a few friendsprobably E. C. Benedict, Colonel Lamont and George F. Parker-he will receive the returns there. The private wire will be so arranged that Mr. Cleveland can at any time call up the members of the national

Will Vote for Harrison and Reid. NEW YORK, Nov. 7 .- Thomas C. Pollock. the general foreign freight agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, who voted for Mr. Cleveland in 1884, and again in 1888, has decided to vote the Republican ticket this year. He said to-day: "I don't believe in the Democratic platform's declaration on the currency question. Beyond that, I am a moderate protectionist. I lived in England for years, and the poverty of the people was a continual surprise to me. Our prosperity is, I think, due to protection."

Wild Democratic Claims. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7 .- Max Popper. chairman of the Democratic State central committee, says if 20,000 votes are polled for Weaver the State will go for Cleveland. The Populists' committee claim Weaver will carry the State by a small plurality. Chairman Meyers, of the Republican State committee, will not venture any statement as to plurality, but says that his committee has the greatest confidence that the State will go for Harrison.

Indiana Voters Coming Home. CHICAGO, Nov. 7 .- One hundred voters of the Hoosier State were sent home by E. W.

Bradford, who arrived at the Grand Pacific on Sunday morning. Mr. Bradford said: "If we get our voters out we will be all right-victory is ours. If not, why then, you see, the Democrats, for the greater part, are made up of men who are accustomed to rough weather, in fact, to a hard ife generally. Therefore, they are not likely to have their number diminished by Trying to Vote Indiana Democrats.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7. - A complaint has reached Republican headquarters that a number of railroad men who live in Indians towns and board in Chicago, have been registered here. The number will probably reach over two hundred. It is said they are being brought into Chicago under the auspices of the Democratio party local leaders. United States marshals have been specially instructed to take summary measures to prevent the perpetration of the alleged fraud.

No Free Speech in Virginia. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7 .- Ex-Congressman John S. Wise, formerly of this State, now of New York city, attempted to make a speech here to-night in the interest of the Republican party, but was hooted down by his audience, Captain Wise was exceedingly wrathy, and left the hall, saying he would go direct to the telegraph office and published the outrage to the world, and gain thousands of votes for the Republican party.

Taggart Will Be "Fooled." BLOOMINGTON, III., Nov. 7 .- "General" the campaign, quietly, at his home, resting and receiving a few of his most intimate friends. He sent several telegrams to prominent leaders of the party. Thomas Taggart, chairman of the State Democratic committee of Indiana, wired Mr. Stevenson early this evening, claiming the State was certain for Democracy by at least 10,000.

Republicans Will Carry West Virginia. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 7 .- So close has the canvass been made in West Virginis that the Republicans claim the State from the electoral vote to constable, including everything by from 3,000 to 4,400. The Democrats say their majority will probably be 1,000 to 2,000.

Washington Will Stand by the G. O. P. TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 7 .- The Republicans are confident that Washington will give Harrison from 5,000 to 7,000 plurality. Both the Democrats and Republicans claim the State by a small plurality. It seems probable, however, Harrison will carry the State.

A Democrat Gives Up New York. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 .- George Raines, of New York, who presided over the convention at Saratoga which nominated Governor Flower, writes to his brother here that New York will go Republican by about the majority of four years ago.

Expectations in Idaho, Boirs, Ida., Nov. 7.-The chairman of the Republican State committee claims the State for Harrison by 1,200 to 1,500 plurality. The People's party estimate Weaver electors will have 4,000 plurality. They are being indorsed by the Democrats who claim the State for Weaver by 2,500. Iowa Safe for Harrison. . DUBUQUE, Ia., Nov. 7.-The Democrats claim this State by 6,000 plurality, but the Republicans give reasons for believing the Harrison electors will be chosen by 10,000 to 15,000 plurality.

STATE OF THE WEATHER.

Bad in New York and the Northwest, but Fair in Indiana and the West. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.-Professor Hazen promises very wet weather in New York for to-morrow, but he says in Indiana the weather will be cold, and there will be a strong wind, which will dry the roads and make it possible for the farmers to come to the polls in force. In most of the States west of the Mississippi the weather is likely to be fair, which is Republican weather and encouraging to the hopes of the Republican party.

A dispatch from New York says: "The weather prospects for to-morrow are Highest of all in Leavening Power .- Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

M'KINLEY'S MELLOW VOICE. He Has Made a Great Record as a Stump-

Speaker-Reed Next in Demand. New York Letter in Philadelphia Press.

Some of the members of the Republican national committee were chatting with some friends yesterday afternoon, when the conversation drifted to campaign oratory. Colonel Hahn, of Ohio, who has charge of the department of the national campaign committee bureau which allots the public speakers, said that he thought Governor McKinley had beaten all records as a stump-speaker in this campaign.

A gentleman who heard McKinley in Utica the other afternoon was amazed when he was told that the Governor had made more than 150 speeches already. 'Wby," said he, "his voice was as clear and his manner as fresh and inspiring as though it was the first speech of the cam-

"Yes, it is a remarkable vocal organ which McKinley has," said Colonel Hahn. "He delivered more than one hundred speeches in Ohio last fail. He sometimes addressed open-air audiences containing as many as 15,000 people, and it was marvelous the way his vocal cords stood that

McKinley is one of the few speakers who does not mind the weather. Conkling used to say that something existed in the atmosphere along the sea-shore which ruined the voices of those who spoke much in the open air, whereas the drier climate of the West made such speaking without baleful effect possible.

On the whole, Mckinley and Reed have been the most widely sought of all the Republican campaigners. Mr. Manley, speaking of the popularity of these speakers, said that if it were possible for McKinley and Reed to speak together from the same platform in every considerable town in the North in a campaign, they would procure such majorities as were known in the war times. McKinley stimulates an audience and Reed delights it. One has logic and the other persuasion with sarcasm. Those who heard Stephen A. Donglas, when he was making that wonderful campaign on the stump in behalf of his own election, say that McKinley suggests him as a stumporator. Whereas, on the other hand, there is something of the magic power of Tom Corwin in Reed's addressings on the

The national committee found that John Sherman was sought mainly by Republicans living in large cities, where finance is a matter of daily comment and where Sherman's magnificent contribution to the financial policy of the government is best understood. The committee had hoped AMUSEMENTS.

new orator, some young man who would secure wide fame, but in this it has been disappointed. Not so many young men bave gone upon the stump as was hoped would be the case. No speaker of either party has pre-eminently struck the keynote of the campaign as Blaine has done once of twice, and as Conkling did in his Academy of Music address in 1872. But Colonel Hahn says that while there have been no exceptionally conspicuous achievements the average of the speaking during the campaign has been better probably than at any time since 1872.

How Large Was He?

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: Human bones were lately found in a gravel pit on the farm of Jonathan Conkle. on the south line, section 17, township 17, range 5, in Lawrence township, Marion county. The occipital, parietal and temporal bones are in fragments, but appear large. Of the femoral bones only one is whole; it measures eighteen inches. The vertebrae were entirely gone. Of the pelvis, small pieces were found, but they crumbled easily. The tibia was so far gone that it could not be measured with accuracy. The bones of the feet were dissolved or gone. Two metacarpals were found, one, apparently of an index finger, two and a half inches in length, and one of the thumb, one inch and three-quarters long. The lower jaw bone was broken and measures six inches across. Will some scientist please answer as to his size and possible length of time buried.

CASTLETON, Ind., Nov. 7. A Republican Woman's View.

Lucy Stone, in Boston Transcript. Women are not permitted to vote. More is the pity. But they may express an opinion. This is mine: Under Republican administration of more than thirty years the country has had unexampled and increasing prosperity; and this in spite of the fact that we were burdened with the debt, and other evil conditions, the result of the

This fact stands out as proof of the wisdom and safety of continuing an admin-istration which has been so valuable that people from all countries of the world come here to better their condition, and to share our prosperity. If I had a vote I should give it to the Republican candidates. I have watched the Democratic caucuses in this city, and I have read the Tammany doings in New York. They are not reassuring as to the wisdom of making over the welfare of this country to the Democratic party. "It is the tail that wags the head." Obituary. CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 7 .- John L. Taylor,
